

BECOME A YADKIN EXTENSION MASTER GARDENER VOLUNTEER

NEW CLASS STARTS
JANUARY 2014

APPLICATIONS DUE
DECEMBER 1, 2013

Do you want to learn more about the culture and maintenance of many types of plants and participate in a practical and intense training program?

Do you want to share knowledge with people in your community?

The Extension Master Gardener Volunteer Program is a national program of trained volunteers who work in partnership with their local Cooperative Extension Center to extend horticultural information throughout the community. Accepted applicants enter the training portion of the program, and after passing the final exam, begin the volunteer component.

Classes meet for 15 weeks on Tuesday afternoons. The cost of the program is $125, which includes a comprehensive training manual. For an application or questions, contact Colleen Church with North Carolina Cooperative Extension in Yadkinville at 679-2061.

Training topics include:

Lawn Care

Insect & Disease Management

Soils & Plant Nutrition

Vegetable Gardening

Weed Control

Home Fruit Production

Plant Propagation

Houseplants & Flowers

Ornamental Trees & Shrubs

Botany and more...
